

Strand Street
Sherris
June 13

Dear Sister

I did not say much in my last letter I had not time I am glad you are well I received your letter and found all right we had word from the Custom House they could not find your birth there nor they could not find it in Charlemont Street nor in Balrothery Union but I hope Vickers will do the British Priest kept me a week looking for it but could not find it may in case you go to France if you could get over here I would like for to see you in any case write and tell me if you could come I hope you will get across all right I will pray for you Kate Dunne was buried here last week Katie Mean was married here on yesterday to the head teacher of Ballinacorney we are not in the Hoar Rock this year Pat was not able for to go down I am glad Niekay and the boys is all working and John Sheilds remember me to Luke wife and child Peter Christy and Annie John and family

Your loving sister C. Halligan

Mrs Nicholas Wade
254 Ave. C
Bayonne
U.S.A. New Jersey